I am directed to refer to the correspondence ending with Mr. Mallett's letter, dated the 24th November 1915, regarding Mr. B.N. Iyenger, a Mysore subject, who is studying in Germany.

Mr. Iyenger's relatives have not heard from him since September 1918, and are anxious that he should be assisted, if necessary, to return to India as early as possible, and I am to request that, if the Secretary of State for India sees no objection, steps may be taken to effect this. With reference to your letter to Sir Thomas Holderness, No. 20, dated the 24th March 1919, I write to let you know that Mr. B.N. Iyenger called upon me yesterday to report his arrival from Germany, and to ask for the assistance of this Department in obtaining a passport to India. He wishes to remain in England for 2 or 3 months to visit Agricultural Experimental Stations, and hopes to return to India about July. The reason he gave for the delay in his return from Germany was that he had been rather seriously ill and had been unable to travel. He appears to have quite recovered now and to be in good health.

I have given him the necessary forms of application for
